[repo] Migration from Archlinux, conflicts between ghostscript-libre and gnu-ghostscript

Description
When I attempted to migrate from Arch, ghostscript-libre and gnu-ghostscript wanted to replace ghostscript, so if you say yes at all the replacement propositions, the dependency check fails. The user may install one of the ghostscript package.
I don't know if it's possible to provide a choice like when choosing phonon engine.

gnu-ghostscript-9.05.0-2 was released, check if now works. I removed replaces line in that package.
