I haven't used Django for a long time, this might be a bug.

It was solved, now parabolaweb updates "Recent Updates" correctly.

Changed the description, since the main issue isn't fixed.

I think I fixed this. I don't remember. But I'm not getting the error emails anymore. But perhaps we don't have the mailer set up correctly on the new server. Someone should ping me about this in the morning. I'm too tired right now to trust myself with `sudo`.
