Description
Vimperator and many other addons don't work anymore with Firefox, Icecat or Iceweasel since version 57. Waterfox is a web browser that "intends to maintain support" for these addons, as the Vimperator site says. It would be nice to have it added to the pcr. The aur offers [[https://aur.archlinux.org/packages/waterfox-bin/]] and [[https://aur.archlinux.org/packages/waterfox-git/]].

- Parent task set to #2165

- Priority changed from bug to wish

This, with a different browser, has already been discussed at some length.

I'm guessing the views will be similar here as they were in #2165
