Description
When installing the inputstream-adaptive addon (which for some reason is separate from kodi proper), installation fails due to conflicting files shared by both 'kodi' and 'kodi-common'. It appears that the former is a duplicate.

History

#1 - 2021-03-10 10:38 PM - eschwartz

The kodi package got updated in [community] and things got moved around. kodi-x11 replaces kodi, kodi-common now contains some of the files shared between multiple kodi frontend binaries.

The [libre] package needs to be updated to incorporate these changes, and the new split package needs to be added in the blacklist.
