<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>steps to reproduce:<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1) # pacman -S &lt;package in subject line&gt;</li></ol></li><li>expected result:I expect pacman to install the packages.</li><li>actual result:Instead, it prints: warning: cannot resolve "kdepim-runtime", a dependency of "&lt;package&gt;"</li></ul>
None of the full featured GUI personal information managers still sitting in Parabola's repos work, except for evolution (and the recent upgrade to gtk4 makes it increasingly difficult to use on a small screen): kde-pim packages can't be installed because of the missing kdepim-runtime dependency, icedove hasn't been updated in years and can't install, iceape is in even worse shape.

thanks for noticing - 'kdepim-runtime' was removed from the blacklist; but the package had yet be restored - i think this is fixed now
