Description

- steps to reproduce:
  1) https://www.parabola.nu/packages/?sort=-last_update&q=linux-rt-lts&maintainer=&flagged=
  2) https://git.parabola.nu/blacklist.git/tree/blacklist.txt#n461

- expected result:
  No packages found on step #1 as they are blacklisted

- actual result:
  Blacklisted packages are in the repos

- Status changed from unconfirmed to confirmed

all blacklisted packages "slip in" in the same way - they can not be blacklisted until after that happens and someone notices - those were added to the blacklist though - im not sure yet, why they were not deleted automatically

as long as 'your-freedom' is installed, it is not possible to install any of those packages - 'your-freedom' is required by 'base', which is considered to be mandatory for a fully-supported parabola system

the repo importer was using a stale cached copy of the blacklist

in the future, this script can be used to identify them:

#!/bin/bash

readonly PACMANCONF_FILE=/etc/pacman-all.conf
readonly BLACKLIST_FILE=/usr/share/doc/your-freedom/blacklist.txt

pacman --config=${PACMANCONF_FILE} -Sy for ea in $(cut -d: -f1 ${BLACKLIST_FILE})
do  grep -q ^${ea}:: ${BLACKLIST_FILE} && pacman --config=${PACMANCONF_FILE} -Ssq ^${ea}$ done
